

Self-care and regulation

Self care - look after ourselves as a priority.

Energy has a limit – what can you do for yourself to get more energy?

Looking after ourselves first is not always natural for parents.

Feeling guilty for having me-time is counter productive.

Calming strategies vary from person to person – what will you do?

A note on the calendar can ensure you put aside time - even 5 minutes.

Regulation is easier once you have discovered what works for you.

Explore what works best for you and for every member of the family.
